ABOUT AIA INDIANA

AIA Indiana is a statewide non-profit association that represents roughly 750 architects from four local sections which includes Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Northern Indiana, and Southern Indiana. The component encourages collaboration and provides support for all architects in Indiana through fellowship with a goal of advancing the profession.

Education, training, design aesthetic, advancement of practice and coordination with the building industry prove to be elements of focus. The component continues to monitor State of Indiana issues such as licensure, sustainability, design-build legislation, and taxation on professional services.

AIA Indiana and its volunteer committees focus on membership value with continuing education programs like the yearly Building Code Seminar. The state chapter also provides AIA Documents through the AIA Indiana Bookstore.
AIA Indiana coordinates and plans an annual convention allowing our members to earn required learning units through presentations on design, business issues, technology, and sustainability. The convention allows members, sponsors, and vendors an opportunity to collaborate and share ideas. The convention also centers around a design and service award program. AIA Indiana serves its members, advances their values, and improves the quality of the built environment.

ABOUT AIA INDIANAPOLIS

The AIA Indianapolis Section includes most counties in central Indiana, ranging from Lafayette and Muncie to the north, Bloomington to the south, and Terre Haute to the west. The Indianapolis Section serves approximately 500 members.

The section level of the AIA is where membership engagement is at its best. Through monthly section meetings and programs, AIA Indianapolis offers members continuing education opportunities and networking with both sponsors and members. Specialty educational programs are also scheduled throughout the year to update our members on changing codes, design trends, and new products and materials. Through consistent AIA involvement, a member can obtain all the necessary continuing education credits in sustainability, health, safety, and welfare to meet their annual license requirements.

AIA Indianapolis promotes education and inspiration of our future generation through a statewide high school architectural design competition and continues fostering our young architects through the Young Architects Forum. AIA Indianapolis is the voice of the architectural professional and our board provides leadership to our communities in areas of architecture, design, and city improvement issues. AIA Indianapolis is vital to our local professionals through advocacy at the local, state, and national levels of government. Through the generous donations of our sponsors and the work of our members, the AIA Indianapolis is able to support, advocate, educate, and engage our local architects who are designing for the future of our cities and communities.
SUMMARY

Our sponsorship opportunities as a part of AIA Indiana and AIA Indianapolis will allow you to demonstrate your commitment to the built environment and reach hundreds of professionals in the design and construction industry.

Each year both organizations offer a variety of events throughout the calendar year including membership meetings, technical seminars, collaborative programs with other local organizations, design award programs, and conventions. Each event offers a unique networking opportunity for businesses to promote products and services directly to the local design community.

OPPORTUNITIES

Companies that commit to a sponsorship of $750 or more per year become an AIA Indiana and AIA Indianapolis Corporate Sponsor. Sponsors receive a variety of benefits that include visibility, networking, promotional opportunities, event registrations, and recognition as committed partners with AIA Indiana and AIA Indianapolis. They also provide access to our marquee awards programs — Excellence in Architecture Awards Ceremony, Indiana High School Design Competition, and Indiana Design Awards — which give your company broad and valuable exposure to hundreds of architects across the state. Monthly continuing education programs give you regularly networking opportunities and member events such as the Golf Outing and Home Tour give you unique and fun venues to reach members and the outside public.

Frequently Asked Questions

I’d like to attract architects to my showroom. Can holding events be part of my sponsorship?

Sponsors have the opportunity to host events at their location. We’d be happy to discuss specifics of such an event on a case-by-case basis.

I have products I’d like to market to architects. Does AIA Indiana and AIA Indianapolis have a trade show?

AIA Indiana participates in a convention on an annual basis with AIA Kentucky and/or AIA Ohio (every other year with AIA Ohio). If you would like to have a display at the convention expo, please contact Jason Shelley, 317.634.6993. jshelley@aiaindiana.org.

I have a Continuing Education class or product/service demonstration I’d like to present to the architects. Do I have to be a Sponsor to do that?

Yes. If you are interested in presenting a continuing education class or product/service presentation, we are happy to make arrangements as part of your membership benefits.
